TITLE: Lady with Diamonds
MEDIUM: Stainless steel and marble
YEAR: 2010
The intent of this sculpture is to create engagement with the work physically as seating, and metaphorically and visually as a series of open windows between the Village of Snowmass' administration and the citizenry that it serves.

11
ARTIST: Roaring Forge, LLC - Ken Reiley, John Hoffman, and Joe Burleigh
TITLE: May Fly
MEDIUM: Metal
YEAR: 2000
"Metamorphosis" was conceived to honor the restoration of Brush Creek and the comeback of the mayfly population in this now healthy habitat.

TITLE: Lady with Diamonds
MEDIUM: Steel
YEAR: 2002
With wings formed like diamonds, the metaphors for the gift of intellect, she has the ability to fly in mind and spirit, as she sits regally atop a giant stone, surrounded by flowers in summer and blankets of snow in winter.

13
ARTIST: Gail Fredell, Flying Hammer Studios
TITLE: The Leanners
MEDIUM: Wood
YEAR: 2008
This piece was created in memory of Tom Blake, known as a Renaissance man who loved outdoor sports, especially skiing, sailing, and mountain biking. He served on the Board of County Commissioners from 1980-1988 and on the Town of Snowmass Village Council from 1990-1994. His dedication to the community he loved will be remembered in this public art sculpture. Funding for the Blake Memorial came from donations in Tom's memory. The selection of the artist was managed by SAAB.

TITLE: Our Refuge, Our Place
MEDIUM: Sandblasted Colorado Sandstone and Aerblock
YEAR: 1997 & 2007
This installation reflects the feeling of the mountains, shapes of mining shafts and the interconnectedness of community members. The values of the community were discussed at a town meeting from which 11 words were gathered and sandblasted onto the sculpture. These words are intended to add a center point for these community aspirations "etched in stone" and renewed with each visit to the sculpture.
